WHAT IS COLLECTION IN THE WILD?

Collection in the Wild is a privately owned group of safari properties and conservation projects in Kenya, built on one belief: that tourism, when done well, can protect land, support communities and create exceptional guest experiences. It began with a simple mud hut on a former bean farm on the edge of the Maasai Mara and has grown into a carefully curated collection:

Pinnacle
Wild Hill – Ultra-private, design-led, wellness-focused
For UHNWI, VIPs, milestone journeys and guests seeking something rare and exceptional

Safari Lodge
House in the Wild – Elegant, relaxed lodge life with soul
For couples, honeymooners, retirees, families and thoughtful travellers

Under Canvas
Wild Forest Camp - Secluded, romantic tented camp
For small groups, couples, honeymooners, retirees and safari purists

Private Wild Villas
Exclusive-use safari homes in the Maasai Mara, Tsavo and Lamu
For families, groups, celebrations and guests who want privacy with depth of experience

Each property is different in style and scale, but all are united by the same values: conservation, community, warmth and thoughtful hospitality.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT?

- Owner-led: Every property is shaped and managed by our team
- Conservation at the core: Rewilding, wildlife protection and community partnerships
- Responsible tourism: Guided by The Long Run's 4C framework (Conservation, Community, Culture, Commerce)
- Warm, personal hospitality: Human, genuine, never formulaic
- Non-congested game viewing: Access to large private conservancies
- Extraordinary experiences; horse riding, heli flights, inspiration through Futures in the Wild

IMPACT

Every stay supports:
- Land restoration and biodiversity
- Local livelihoods and long-term community projects
- Conservation partnerships

Wild Tsavo
at a glance

Wild Tsavo is a five-bedroom riverside villa set on the banks of the Galana River, within a private wildlife sanctuary. Built in a warm Moroccan style that rises organically from the red earth, the house reflects a deep love for the African bush, thoughtful design, and strong family values. Framed by ancient baobabs and raw wilderness, it offers effortless indoor–outdoor living, with an expansive swimming pool, sweeping verandahs, tranquil chill-out spaces and an upstairs sundowner deck overlooking the river.

A secluded spa tent invites true rest, while long walks, wildlife encounters and wide-open landscapes reveal a different kind of safari—quiet, elemental and entirely your own. With its own airstrip, private conservancy to explore, an animal-viewing platform for nights under the stars, and optional helicopter adventures to the Kiva River, Wild Tsavo is a soulful retreat. Created by close family friends with great love and care for family and wildlife, whose legacy lives on in this extraordinary place, we are honoured to share this rare and deeply special home with our guests. It is a beautiful add-on to a Mara safari or a seamless stop on the journey to Lamu.
